

Ms. Isabel Batista, EFRAG Senior Technical manager, Belgium. Isabel joined EFRAG in July 2006. She has led and worked on several IASB projects and EFRAG research work, including accounting for goodwill and impairment, consolidation, deferred taxation, and rate-regulated activities.

Prior to joining EFRAG, Isabel worked for KPMG for 15 years as an auditor and member of the IFRS Desk in KPMG Brussels supporting the application of IFRS to international organisations. Previously she worked for KPMG Johannesburg and participated in various secondments to regional KPMG offices. Prior to that she was a financial Accountant at Barlow Rand in South Africa.

Isabel graduated with a Bachelors degree in Accounting from WITS university in South Africa and an Honours degree in Accounting Science from the university of UNISA in South Africa.

Mr. Hans Buysse. Partner at Clairfield Benelux. Chairman of the Belgian Association of Financial Analysts (www.abaf-bvfa.be), EFFAS Board member and Treasurer (www.effas.org), XBRL International Board member, member of the ESMA Corporate Reporting Standing Committee's Consultative Working Group (www.esma.europa.eu) and Board member of EFRAG.

Hans has more than 20 years of banking and Corporate Finance experience within the energy & utilities sector, telecom, real estate and infrastructure. He has extensive experience in Structured Finance, Financial Restructuring, Strategic Advisory, Valuations and PPP. He started his career at KU Leuven, as a research assistant, moved to Generale Bank in 1992 (Corporate Banking, Group Treasury (financial markets) and Central Credit Department). He cofounded the Corporate Finance division at Deloitte & Touche Belgium in 1997, worked as a partner for KPMG Corporate Finance up to 2007 and at NIBC Bank Belgium where he was head of Advisory. He holds a master degree in Applied economics, specialized in finance, a master degree in management and a degree in Tax. He is a Certified European Financial Analyst (FSA accredited) and teaches at both the Vlerick Business School and the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam.

Mr. Stefan Bielmeier, Head of Research and Economics at DZ Bank, Chairman DVFA and EFFAS Board member. Germany. After obtaining his degree in Economics, Stefan Bielmeier started his career at Deutsche Bank AG in 1996. In June 2010 Stefan Bielmeier joined DZ BANK, where he is Head of Research and Economics and Chief Economist. In addition, Stefan Bielmeier sits on several committees.

Besides his responsibilities at DZ BANK, Stefan Bielmeier is also Chairman of the Executive Board of the German Association for Financial Analysis and Asset Management (DVFA - Deutsche Vereinigung für Finanzanalyse und Asset Management e.V.), the society of investment professionals in Germany.

The goal of the DVFA and its members is to foster the image of the profession, to enhance the conditions in which it is exercised and to promote the public's appreciation of it.

Dr. Damian Borth, Director Deep Learning Competence, German Center for Artificial Intelligence. Germany. Dr. Damian Borth is the Director of the Deep Learning Competence Center at the German Research Center for Artificial Intelligence (DFKI) in Kaiserslautern, the Principle Investigator of the NVIDIA AI Lab at the DFKI, and founding co-director of Sociovestix Labs, a social enterprise in the area of financial data science. Damian's research focuses on large-scale machine learning and in particular deep learning to mine insights from data streams. His work has been awarded by NVIDIA at GTC Europe 2016, the Best Paper Award at ACM ICMR 2012 and the McKinsey Business

Technology Award 2011. Damian currently serves as a member of the steering group at the VolkswagenStiftung, the review committee at the Baden-Württemberg Stiftung, the assessment committee for the Investment Innovation Benchmark (IIB) and several other steering- and program committees of international conferences and workshops. Damian did his postdoctoral research at UC Berkeley and the International Computer Science Institute (ICSI) in Berkeley, where he was involved in big data projects at the Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory. He received his PhD from the University of Kaiserslautern and the German Research Center for Artificial Intelligence (DFKI). During that time, Damian stayed as a visiting researcher at the Digital Video and Multimedia Lab at Columbia University. Starting from September 2018, Damian will be responsible for the chair in Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning at the University of St. Gallen (HSG) and will be responsible to build up a new data and computer science faculty at the University of St. Gallen.

Mr. Antonio Cortina, Director of the Studies Service. Banco Santander, Madrid. Spain. Mr Cortina is Deputy Director of Economic Research in Banco Santander. He joined the Santander's Research Department in 1999 where was in charge of the Latin American economies.

Prior to that Mr. Cortina worked at the Bank of Spain's Research Department as Economist and Banesto's Treasury and Capital Markets Division Department as Director of Financial Markets Research

Mr. Bernard Coupez, Member of the Board, Autorité des Marchés Financiers, France. Bernard is a financial executive with broad experiences in different but complementary fields of expertise: Fund management industry activities: private banking manager, asset allocation officer, buy-side research production or management, European and domestic regulatory constraints in financial markets environment. Financial Analysis on European companies, macro-economic and macro-financial issues. Academic and management training: mainly in advanced practise in financial analysis, corporate financial reporting for investors and regulation in finance industry. Advising small-size companies on financial issues:

director acting as chief financial officer or treasurer for early-stage start-ups as well as more mature small companies. Real-estate investing: Direct experiences in European and Asian countries as managing director of 3 family real estate companies. Specialisations: Fund management, corporate financial reporting, financial markets regulatory environment, government or international financial professional organisations liaison.

Prof. Dr. Leef H. Dierks, Professor for Finance and International Capital Markets. Lübeck University of Applied Sciences. Member of the EFFAS Capital Market Commission. Germany. Leef was appointed Professor for Finance and International Capital Markets at Lübeck University of Applied Sciences in winter semester 2013/14. Guest professorships led him to the German-Jordanian University in Amman, Jordan, Chiang Mai University in Thailand and the Zhejiang University of Technology in Hangzhou, China, amongst others. In between 2010 and 2013 Dr. Dierks served as Global Head of Covered Bond Strategy at US-investment bank

Morgan Stanley in London. Previously, he worked as a Vice President analysing the European fixed income markets at Barclays Capital in Frankfurt.

In 2006, Leef earned a doctoral degree (magna cum laude) for his research on “The impact of trust as a determinant of consumer behaviour under uncertainty – an empirical analysis of consumers’ reactions to a random external shock in Europe” at the Christian-Albrechts-University at Kiel. Following longer stays in Pretoria, South Africa and Mexico-City, Mexico, Leef studied economics as well as business administration at the Universidad Torcuato Di Tella in Buenos Aires, Argentina and the Christian-Albrechts-University at Kiel from 1997 to 2003. Within the scope of his diploma thesis, he investigated the “Predictability of Currency Crises” at the Kiel Institute for the World Economy (IfW). Dr. Dierks has been awarded the Faculty of Economics’ “Lecturer of the Year Award” in 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017 and is a liaison professor of the German Academic Scholarship Foundation (SddV).

Ms. Muriel Faure, Member of the board of the French financial markets authority (AMF). France. Muriel has spent the vast majority of her career working in asset management as founder and CEO of a leading French asset manager specialised in international digital equities dedicated to professional investors. She is also Head of Innovation committee at the French asset management association (AFG). She graduated of ESSEC Business School and French Society of Financial Analysts (SFAF).

Mr. Ralf Frank. Secretary General & Managing Director, DVFA. Ralf Frank joined DVFA in 2002. He has been Managing Director of DVFA since 2004, and Secretary General of the association since 2011.

Prior to his current positions Ralf held several senior management positions at a US-American industrial machinery manufacturer and senior staff at a pan-European management consulting firm. He studied in Brussels, Essen, Manchester and Sheffield and an M.A. in Sociology & Communications from Essen University and an MBA from Sheffield Hallam University. He is author of several articles and publications on finance, banking, financial communications, and sustainability. He is an appreciated speaker and panellist in Germany and abroad.

Ralf represents DVFA in several committees such as the Advisory Board of the German Financial Market Authorities BaFin, the Investors & Markets Advisory Committee (IMAC) of Deutsche Boerse. In the past years he served as Best Practices Board of XBRL Int. and as Council Member of the International Integrated Reporting Committee (IIRG).

Mr. Javier de Frutos, Chairman of the EFFAS Financial Accounting Commission, Spain. Javier has extensive experience in global financial markets. He has worked for more than twenty years in investment banking for BBVA and participated in large private and public offerings and corporate transactions in Europe, North and Latin America. He has been responsible for the bank's international principal investments and serves on the board of several funds and portfolio companies. He started his career at The Bank of Tokyo, Ltd., in New York working as a credit analyst before joining BNP Paribas, formerly Beta Capital, in Madrid in 1987 as head of research for Iberian equities. Javier de Frutos is a graduate from the University of Madrid (Universidad Complutense) and earned a Master's degree in Economics from New York University. Javier is a regular lecturer on international financial reporting issues.

Mr. Andrea Gasperini, Head of Sustainability, AIAF and member of the EFFAS ESG Commission, Italy. Chartered Accountant and Auditor in Italy is AIAF Member (Italian Association for Financial Analysis) since 1993. Head of Sustainability area and of “ESG Observatory” which deals with all topics about Sustainable Finance. Andrea's professional commitments concern all the issues related to the Climate Change, among which great attention is about the risks and opportunities connected to the transition to a low carbon economy. Other professional competences are the analysis of the methods to identify and communicate the intangible assets and liabilities, the environmental, social and corporate governance factors (ESG), the Sustainability Report and the Integrated Report according to the IIRC framework. Andrea participate in initiatives promoted by national and international organizations about these topics.

Mr. Jean Paul Gauzes, EFRAG Board President, European Financial Reporting Advisory Group (EFRAG), Belgium. Jean-Paul Gauzès has on 1 July 2016 been appointed as EFRAG Board President, nominated by the EC. Jean-Paul was from 2004 till 2014 member of the European Parliament. During the whole of this period he was a member of the Committee on Economic and Monetary Affairs (ECON). From 2008 till 2014 Jean-Paul Gauzès was the Coordinator of the European People's Party (EPP) Group in ECON. He has been the rapporteur on various important dossiers including the Directive on Alternative Investment Fund Managers (2010); the Regulation on the supervision of Credit Rating Agencies (2010); and the Regulation on the strengthening of economic and budgetary surveillance of Member States experiencing or threatened with serious difficulties with respect to their financial stability in the euro area (2012).

He is a honorary member of the Bar at the Conseil d'Etat and the Cour de Cassation. From 1998 till 2007 Jean-Paul Gauzès was member of the Executive Board and Tax and Legal Director of Dexia Crédit Local. From 1973 till 1998 he worked as lawyer and legal counsel in France.

Mr. Salvatore Gnoni, Investor Protection and Intermediaries Team in the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA). Salvatore Gnoni is responsible for the Investor Protection and Intermediaries Team in the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA). His area of responsibility include MiFID conduct of business and firms' authorisation and organisational requirements. Recent achievements in this area include the adoption of ESMA product intervention measures, guidelines and Q&As on various topics (such as product governance, suitability, inducements) and other initiatives to strengthen supervisory convergence in the EU and promote cross-sectoral approaches among the ESAs.

Prior to joining ESMA in 2013, Mr. Gnoni worked in the European Commission, where he was actively involved in several regulatory workstreams, including in particular the negotiation of MiFID II. Before joining the Commission in 2008, Mr. Gnoni worked as Senior Officer for CONSOB, the Italian securities regulator, and for Banca d'Italia, in different areas of regulation, supervision and enforcement concerning banks, investment firms and other financial institutions. He has participated as a speaker in several events. Mr. Gnoni is qualified to practice as an attorney.

Mr. Serge Harry, Member of the Executive Committee, London Stock Exchange. England. Serge joined the London Stock Exchange Group (LSEG) in 2013, where he is a member of the Executive Committee as Chief of Staff to the Group's Chief Executive Officer and Group Coordinator of Corporate Strategy. He is also Group Country Head for France, Benelux and Germany. Serge Harry represents LSEG on the Board of Directors of LCH S.A., the Group's clearing house in the Euro zone. He is Chairman of MTS France, the European electronic trading market for sovereign debt, and Member of the board of Curve Global, an interest rate derivatives trading platform.

From 2011 to 2013, Serge Harry was Senior Advisor to the Chief Executive Officer of LSEG. During that time, he worked on LSEG's acquisition of LCH Group. Before joining LSEG, Serge Harry held various senior management positions as member of Executive Committees in the financial markets sector, including Chief Financial Officer of Euronext Group from 2000 to 2007, where he managed the IPO in 2001; Head of Strategy at NYSE Euronext Group from 2007 to 2008; and Chairman and CEO of Bluenext, the world's leading carbon credit trading exchange, from 2008 to 2010. Serge Harry was Deputy Chief Executive Officer of the Paris Bourse from 1999 to 2000 where he was responsible for setting up the clearing house Clearnet and for preparing the merger between the Amsterdam and Brussels stock exchanges to create Euronext in 2000. Prior to that, he held various positions at SICOVAM (now Euroclear France) from 1983 to 1999, including that of General Secretary.

Mr. Jillis Herpers, Executive Director, MSCI. Jillis Herpers is an Executive Director and Head of ESG Client Coverage for EMEA at MSCI.

Jillis has a financial markets background spanning more than 20 years, has worked at MSCI since 2006 and is based in London. He has been actively involved in building out the MSCI ESG Research business to being the largest ESG Ratings and Data provider in the world. In his current role at MSCI as Head of ESG Client Coverage for the EMEA region Jillis is responsible for all MSCI's ESG sales and ESG consultant staff in this region and the clients they service. Prior to MSCI, Jillis worked for over 10 years in Fixed Income, first in The Netherlands at Rabobank and as of 2000 in London for WestLB and Cantor Fitzgerald.

Jillis holds a bachelor's Degree in business economics from the Amsterdam School of Business in The Netherlands.

Dr. Andreas G. F. Hoepner is an Associate Professor of Finance at the ICMA Centre of Henley Business School. He is currently also serving as the Senior Academic Fellow to the United Nations supported Principles for Responsible Investment and as Senior Associate to the University of Cambridge's Programme for Sustainability Leadership. He received his PhD from St Andrews in June 2010,

Andrea's research has won several awards including a 2012 Academy of Management Best Paper Proceeding, a 2010 PRI Academic Research Award, and 2011 and 2012 PRI/FIR Research Grant Awards. He publishes interdisciplinary in journals such as Ecological Economics, European Journal of Finance and Journal of Business Ethics and he is co-editor of the Cambridge

Handbook of Institutional Investment and Fiduciary Duty. He has presented professionally relevant insights from his research to many international organisations such as Allianz Global Investors, AXA, Bloomberg, China Industrial Bank, China Securities Regulatory Commission, Deutsche Bank, Generation Investment, Hermes, IFC, MSCI, Nordea, Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan, Scottish Widows, Shanghai Pudong Development Bank or United Nations Global Compact. His presentations and interviews have been translated into Chinese, Danish, French, German and Japanese.

Mr. Richard Howitt. CEO, The International Integrated Reporting Council (IIRC). Richard Howitt is Chief Executive Officer of the International Integrated Reporting Council. As such he is spearheading the adoption of Integrated Reporting globally and is a major thought-leader in international debates on good corporate governance, shifting investment to the long-term and inclusive capitalism. Richard travels extensively internationally to meet with the over 1,500 global businesses who are adopting Integrated Reporting as well as with advocates of Integrated Reporting in policy and investor communities. He is a member of the B20 group of international business leaders who dialogue with G20 governments. He is also a member of the EU's multistakeholder platform on the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals in the EU. Richard has spoken widely on issues of financial stability, sustainable development and capital market reform as part of the United Nations Forum on Business and Human Rights, the OECD Forum on Responsible Business Conduct, the UNCTAD Expert Group on International Standards of Accounting and Reporting and at other international fora.

Richard has been involved in the evolution of Integrated Reporting from the outset, as a member of HRH The Prince of Wales Annual Forum on Accounting for Sustainability, and was at the original meeting of the Forum which led to the setting up of the IIRC in 2009. He subsequently served as an Ambassador for the IIRC representing it at international meetings including the Rio +20 UN Summit for Sustainable Development before taking over as Chief Executive Officer in November 2016.

Prior to being appointed to the IIRC, Richard served as an elected Member of the European Parliament for over twenty years and was rapporteur on corporate responsibility. In this capacity, he was key architect of the EU's non-financial information directive, one of the biggest transformations in corporate disclosure anywhere in the world.

Mr. Julian Kruse, Fixed Income Portfolio Manager at Berenberg Asset Management, Hamburg / Germany. Since 2014 Julian is managing several mutual funds and segregated accounts within the quantitative asset management unit of Berenberg. Prior to his current position, he worked in the investment banking unit of Commerzbank (Dresdner Bank) as a senior originator in the debt capital markets division with a focus on financial institutions based in Spain, Portugal, Italy and France. He started his career in the banking industry at Deutsche Bank in 2001.

Julian has a master-degree in economics (Diplom Volkswirt) from Humboldt University Berlin and holds the diploma as Certified International Investment Analyst (CIIA), Certified European Financial Analyst (CEFA) as well as Chartered Financial Data Scientist (CFDS).

Mr. Frank Klein. Managing Director. Global Client Group. Deutsche Asset Management International. Frank Klein is working for Deutsche Asset Management, which he re-joined in 2007. Having held a position within Deutsche Asset Management as Global Head of Product Management, he is currently working in institutional distribution for German corporate clients.

Prior to this, he spent eleven years (1996-2007) at Sal. Oppenheim Kapitalanlagegesellschaft KAG, where he served in several positions: German and European equity portfolio management for domestic and foreign institutional clients, Head of mid and small cap team, Oppenheim Research:

Head of equity buy-side research. Before joining Sal. Oppenheim, Frank Klein worked for Deutsche Bank AG (1984-1996) in a broad range of positions, mainly in the Asset Management area.

Since 2008 he has been a board member of the German national member society DVFA; since 2011 he has been EFFAS EMC member and since 2015 member of the IIRC. Besides that, he has been a speaker at a number of national and international conferences.

Mr. Lionel Pellicer, Vice President SFAF and Head of Research at Alphavalue. France. Lionel PELLICER. currently (since 2008) Head of Research and part of the management board at Alphavalue, a leading independent European research house including about 30 analysts and a coverage of 480 companies. He previously spent 18 years in various analyst positions at Fideuram Wargny (Broker) and Avenir Finance (corporate finance). He began his career in big industrial companies, namely Schlumberger and Essilor after a Master of Science at Ecole Centrale Paris (1994).

Mr. Aurelio Lonardo, Independent Corporate Finance Adviser.

Member of AIAF and Coordinator of the FinTech Study Group

Independent Corporate Finance Advisor focusing on Growth Capital and M&A for Fintech, Enterprise Software, and Professional Services Companies.

He held Corporate Finance managerial positions at Groups such as BNL Paribas, Unipol, and BANOR SIM.

Aurelio graduated in Engineering and obtained a MSc in Business Administration and Technology Choices at the Business School of the Polytechnic of Milan.

Mr. Amaro Luiz de Oliveira Gomes Board Member, The International Accounting Standards Board (IASB), United Kingdom. Amaro is a Board Member with the IASB since 1st. July 2009. Before joining the IASB, he was the Head of the Financial System Regulation Department of the Central Bank of Brazil. With an in-depth knowledge of financial sector regulation. He has had various roles and responsibilities while in the Central Bank from 1992 until 2009, actively participating in many international forums and working groups representing the Bank.

As a senior official at the Central Bank, Mr. Gomes was responsible for drafting and proposing to the Board, regulation related to financial products and services (e.g. derivatives, mortgage), microfinance (access to banking services and products), consumer rights in the banking sector (banking fees, information transparency), capital requirements (implementation of Basel Committee recommendations, including Basel II), adoption of international accounting and auditing standards (IFRS and ISA), and best practices and recommendations in prudential regulation (implementation of the 25 Core Principles for Effective Banking Supervision), and market integration (Mercosur).

Ms. Ana María Martínez Pina, Vice Chairman of the Comisión Nacional del Mercado de Valores (CNMV), Spain. Born in 1971 in Barcelona, Ana M^a Martínez-Pina has a Degree in Law from the Central University of Barcelona and belongs to the Spanish Government Insurance Inspectorate.

She served at the Directorate General of Insurance and Pension Funds and, from 2003, at the Institute of Accounting and Accounts Auditing (ICAC), where she has been the Assistant Deputy Director General for Standardization and Technical Accounting, and the Secretary of the Advisory Committee of Accounting.

She has been a member of the working groups in charge of elaborating the Spanish General Accounting Plan and all its implementing rules. She has also been a member of the Governing Committee of the Fund for Orderly Bank Restructuring (FROB).

Prior to her appointment as Vice-Chairman of the CNMV, she was the Chairman of the ICAC. She is the President of ESMA's Corporate Reporting Standing Committee, a member of the Board of the Bank of Spain, and a member of the Governing Committee of the FROB.

Mr. Ramon Pueyo, Partner KPMG Sustainability Services. KPMG, Spain. Ramón has seventeen years' experience in corporate governance and corporate social responsibility. His principal areas of focus have been corporate governance, ethics and integrity, sustainability and non-financial issues in financial markets and investment decisions. Before joining KPMG in 2005 he worked for six years for the research institution providing ESG research on Spanish companies to, amongst others, the FTSE4GOOD Index.

He has led several engagements on ethics and integrity due diligence and corporate governance for some of Spain's largest companies in the energy and infrastructure sectors. He has provided services on ESG strategy and approach for the investor relations departments of several Spanish blue chips in the infrastructure, banking and energy sectors. He is regularly invited as a speaker at CSR conferences and seminars, both nationally and internationally. He has been a lecturer on microeconomics and is a regular contributor to the Spanish press, particularly in Cinco Días newspaper, where he writes a monthly column, and is the author of "Lobos Capitalistas. Historias de Éxito y Locura", a non-fiction book on behavioural economics.

Mr. Manuel Puerta, Head of Real Estate Funds in BPI Asset Management, Chairman APAF, EFFAS Board member. Portugal. Since 1992, Mr. Puerta da Costa has held several positions in BPI Group (now part of Caixa bank Group) as Sector Equity Analyst, Head of Research, Head of Capital Markets, being appointed as Executive Director in BPI Equity Broker from 1996 to 2000. From 2000 to 2010 he was responsible for creating a new Team, within BPI's Private Banking Division, responsible for managing HNW and UHNW individual portfolios, launching successfully a new range of Multi-Asset Products that now are at the core of BPI's Asset Management product offer. From 2008 he was appointed to the Boards of BPI Asset Management (BPI AM) and BPI Insurance and Pensions (BPI VP), and in 2010 he took over the Real Estate Funds and Pension Funds managed in-house. Mr. Puerta da Costa has years of experience in interacting with several areas of Financial markets, namely institutional investors, Equity Analysts and Real Estate managers. He has been a member of the APAF's board since 2008 and has been President of APAF Board of Directors since 2015, after being a deputy the previous 3 years. Since 2017, Mr. Puerta da Costa has been a member of the board of EFFAS (The European Federation of Financial Analysts Societies, www.effas.com), the umbrella organization of all analyst associations in Europe. In 2017, he was also elected member of the Board of EFAMA – European Fund and Asset Management Association, as a representative of the Portuguese association of Fund Managers. He is also the member of the TQC of EFFAS and a member of the Financial Analyst College of the Portuguese Economists Bar. He has lectured in several seminars and conferences in the last 25 years.

Prof. Dr. Dirk Soehnholz. M.B.A. (C.U.N.Y.) Business studies in Bayreuth, Mannheim and New York (1983-1991). BCG, Gerresheimer, Telepassport, Feri, Veritas (1991-2015). Founder, CEO and owner of Diversifikator GmbH (2016-today). Co-Author "Asset Allocation, Risiko-Overlay und Manager-Selektion" (2010). Honorary professor for asset management at Universität Leipzig (2012-today). Blog www.prof-soehnholz.com (2014-today)

Ms Anna Szerzsen, Policy Officer of Security Markets unit, Financial Services and Capital Markets Union. European Commission. Anna is a Policy Officer seconded from the Polish Finance Ministry to the European Commission's Directorate-General for Financial Stability, Financial Services and Capital Markets Union (DG FISMA) since 2013. Anna works in the Securities Markets Unit, where her areas of expertise include MiFID II investor protection, third-country regime and equivalence policy.

Anna is a qualified lawyer, admitted to the Warsaw Bar Association in 2012, and holds a Master's degree in Law from the University of Warsaw and a Master's degree in Banking and Finance from the Warsaw School of Economics. She is currently pursuing a Graduate Diploma in Law at the University of Law in London, UK.

Prior to joining DG FISMA, Anna worked for four years at the Polish Finance Ministry as an expert focusing on MIFID II policy reforms, EMIR and Central Securities Depositories Regulation (CSDR). She was also involved in discussions on securities law legislation, launched by the European Commission in 2009.

Mr. John Turner, CEO, XBRL International. John is the CEO of XBRL International, the standards development organisation behind XBRL, the business reporting standard. XBRL International works to enhance transparency and accountability in business performance by developing and promoting its freely licensed global data exchange specifications in the public interest.

Mr Turner has previously served as the CEO of CoreFiling, a leading XBRL vendor, led the XBRL activities of KPMG International LLP and ran the first regulatory project to utilise XBRL for data collection, leading the data collection and analysis reengineering efforts at APRA, the Australian financial regulator. He is a passionate advocate for the pragmatic use of standards to enhance reporting and with the staff of XBRL International works with the consortium's members and leading regulators around the world to this end.

Turner holds BA/LLB from the University of Queensland, where in addition to a law degree he majored in computer science and government. Now based in Oxford in the UK, he works in his current role with regulators, policy makers, standards setters, financial institutions and the accounting profession from around the world to improve business reporting to the benefit of a wide range of users.